March 2019

Message from the President

Are you in between projects? Right now, my floor looms sit empty. Every time I pass them, they call out to me to find some inspiration. We are lucky to live where we have great museums. I always find inspiration in the use of color in paintings at the MFAH. Outside the spring colors are beginning to appear, with Mother Nature providing plenty of inspiration for our projects.

I'm looking forward to my next GH class, Tapestry – Next Steps. Taking workshops and classes will provide ideas for future projects yet to be crystallized.

Where do you find inspiration for your projects? Barbara Esterholm

In the tapestry of life, we're all connected. Each one of us is a gift to those around us helping each other be who we are, weaving a perfect picture together. Anita Moorjani

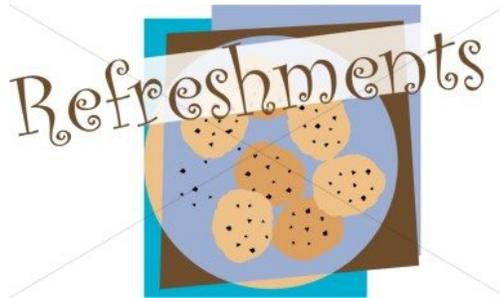

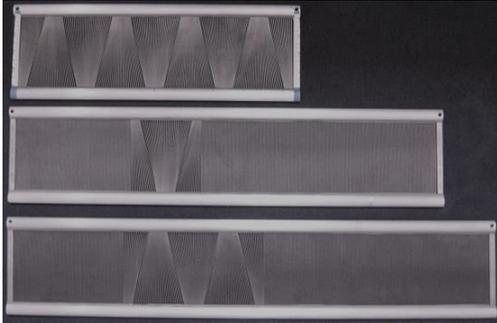

General Meeting

March 16, 2019

10am - noon

Margaret Arafat – “Weaving with Ondulé and Other Unique Reeds”

Margaret Arafat is an accomplished weaver from Fort Worth. Her work was recently featured in the book Ondulé, by Norma Smayda. From Margaret - "At this point in time, most of you have probably seen an Ondulé or fan reed or other types of similarly unique reeds and the cloth woven with them. However, it's doubtful that many of you know much about or even tried one. This is your opportunity to learn a little about these unique weaving tools during the March Program. I'll explain how an Ondulé reed offers a continual challenges to the weaver from designing to finishing a woven piece, challenges that move beyond weaving with a conventional reed. There will be samples and finished pieces, some of which you might have seen, some new. In addition, I'll demonstrate how to use at least one of the reeds on my table loom, and then give you the chance to try weaving with it. Come take a quick ride down the slippery slope that I find so rewarding."

CHH Bylaws

"It's been almost 20 years since the CHH Bylaws were reviewed. During that time, the Guild has undergone some changes, the most significant of which is the addition of the Guild House. The Executive Board felt that it was time to review the Bylaws to make sure that they are consistent with our current business practices. These revised Bylaws do not represent a substantive departure from the way CHH has always conducted its business. Rather, they represent a consolidation of amendments made over the years, reorganized into a logical, user friendly format, with minor tweaks made to reflect the current state of CHH's business operations."
Laura Viada

The Updated Bylaws approved by the Executive Board you will find below. These Bylaws were developed by a committee consisting of: Laura Viada (Chair), D'Anne Craft, Connie Elliott, Barbara Esterholm, and Diane Ferguson. These Bylaws will be published this month and next in the CHH newsletter. The new Bylaws will be voted on at the March General Meeting if a Quorum of members is present as required by the Bylaws. If you have questions about the Bylaws please contact: Barbara Esterholm besterholm@comcast.net

Volunteer Opportunities – March 2019

You'll probably be getting this just as we're getting ready to participate in the annual Craft Community Day at the Houston Center for Contemporary Craft. The date is Saturday, March 2nd, from 11 until 3. Stop by and say hello if you have a chance.

We were invited to the Maritime Museum to participate in their monthly Family Day on Saturday, February 23. February's topic was the Ancient Mediterranean. One of the maritime activities during this time period was the quest for dye materials. I laid out, in their Naval Theater, information on natural dyes along with dyed samples done by some of our members. As they had a screen in the room, I was able to play a video on natural dyeing. The visitors seemed to enjoy our offering.

The Maritime Museum is a fascinating place. If you have the opportunity, stop in and check it out. They are on Canal Street in the same building as the Andes restaurant. As they are right behind the Guild House after a meeting would be a great time to visit. - Pat penny@skyloomweavers.com. (West)

All study group participants must be active members in CHH. Just as visitors are allowed to attend one general membership meeting, so are visitors allowed to attend one study group meeting. Regular participation in study groups requires active membership. It is not fair to those who maintain their membership regularly to have to support those who feel they don't need to because they don't attend the general membership meetings. So study group coordinators please have your delinquent members go to our website, www.weavehouston.org, and renew. Thank you.
